DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 50-70, drawn to a method for supply material to a processing machine using a store and a transport system, wherein a control system receives data and develops a strategy for supplying the processing machine with rolls and administers the store.

Group II, claim(s) 71-92, drawn to a device for supplying material to a processing machine with a subsystem that is controlled by a control unit comprising a planning level and a coordination level, wherein the planning level has interfaces with the management level of the processing machine and with a product planning system, wherein the coordination level has interface with the subsystem.

Group III, claim(s) 93-94, drawn to a control system for controlling a material flow in a material supply system with at least two lower order subsystems, the control system comprises a planning level and a coordination level, the planning level developing a supply strategy and the coordination level controlling the running of the subsystem.

Group IV, claim(s) 95-98, drawn to a printing plant with a printing press and a roll supply system which are both connected to a control system that is of higher order than the roll supply system and the printing press with respect to decisions concerning the supply of rolls and the determining of needs.

The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The feature common to all groups of inventions is that of a material supply system. This type of material supply system is generally known. For this reason, the four groups of inventions are not linked by any special technical features and therefore the requirement for unity of invention (PCT Rule 13.1 and 13.2) is not considered to be satisfied.

A telephone call was made to Douglas R. Hanscom on November 16, 2006 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Sean P. Shechtman whose telephone number is (571) 272-3754. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30am-6:00pm, M-F.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Leo P. Picard can be reached on (571) 272-3749. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
